ENGINEER HENNEY'S OPINION

Mr. David S. Henney, who is the engineer for the city in charge of the construction of the light and water plant, recently took a look at the proposed city park site at the request of the Woman's Club committee. Then this morning Mr. Henney had Mr. Robert Ebner make another investigation of the site, and a report of the committee will be made.

It is Mr. Henney's opinion that the Taylor pond property can be drained very easily, and without any great expense, into the underground stream of the grotto. He does not think it will be possible to have the large lakes called for in the design of Mr. Swope, without great expense. Mr. Henney does think it will be possible to have a small lake.
